

Peace Café

Artistic Showcase

InSpiral Lounge, 250 Camden High Street
Sunday 21st September
5:00pm— Onwards

- Are you a young Londoner who wants to exhibit your creativity to others?
- Do you want London's policymakers to know what you think of London?

IARS' Youth Empowerment Project in partnership with Women's Resource Centre and Race on the Agenda are hosting an exhibition of Young Londoners' art on 'Peace in the City'

Join us for a fun evening of free food, drinks and a digital exhibition of young people's artwork.

For more information contact:

Alex on 020 7067 1248 or a.burch@iars.org.uk

Ed on 020 7067 1255 or e.strudwick@iars.org.uk

www.iars.org.uk

Independent Academic
Research Studies

Empowering young people to influence policy & practice

Full Details Overleaf

View the work of young artists under the themes of celebration and collaboration.

The evening will include:

- Free Food and Drink
- The chance to express your artistic interests with like minded people
- Screening of ROTA's youth led DVD on gang, gun, and knife culture in London
- Creative and artistic atmosphere
- Music and Visual projections
- Opportunity to contribute artwork using provided materials
- Prize for the best contribution
- Opinions and themes of event will be delivered to policymakers

Map Courtesy of www.google.maps.co.uk

Independent Academic Research Studies is a Company Limited by Guarantee No 5348191 and a Charity
No: 1124590
Cliffords Inn, Fetter Lane, London EC4A 1BZ