

The Vortex, in partnership with BrazenBunch, Lifeforce Muzic and Hackney Cooperative Developments presents:

VORTEX OUTDOORS

Sunday 28th September 2008 1pm – 7pm
Gillett Square, Dalston, London N16 8JH

Zena Edwards

Imani

Tawiah

Ayanna
Witter-Johnson

Baby Sol

Andrey
Triana

Abdul Shyllon

Vortex Outdoors is part of Open Rehearsal and the launch of the Cultural Olympiad.

This event will also feature live performances from music students from the BSIX 6th form college in Hackney.

Location - Gillett Square, Dalston, London N16 8JH

Transport - nearest overground station Dalston Kingsland. Buses: 149, 67, 243, 30, 76, 38, 56, 277

The Vortex Jazz Club is a world-renowned club in Dalston established for over 20 years. It is a beacon for jazz, folk, world and contemporary music in the capital.

BrazenBunch is a not-for-profit organisation working with artists, musicians and filmmakers to provide events that benefit local and global communities – especially young people.

Lifeforce Muzic is committed to supporting and promoting high quality events featuring the best of UK musicality. The Lifeforce Band is made up from some of the UK's finest musicians.

Hackney Cooperative Developments is a not-for-profit, community benefit company specialising in business support, customised training and premises provision for small businesses, community groups and voluntary organisations in Hackney.

For more information please see the following websites:

www.vortexjazz.co.uk www.brazenbunch.com www.myspace.com/lifeforceband www.hced.co.uk

this is a free event

environmentally friendly flyer printed on recycled paper

flyer design: dreaminn.com

