Reconciliation. Celebration. Collaboration.

This year the London Week of Peace is from Saturday 13th September – Sunday 21st September 2008. Our focus this year is aimed at encouraging communities every where to DREAM. (Developing Real Examples And Mentors). By this we hope to see many events and initiatives across London bringing and profiling Peace and Unity in local communities.

To find out about the range of activities happening in 2008 or to plan activities in your community why not log on to www.weekofpeace.org.uk

And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. Leviticus 26 vs.6

A Minute for Peace on 21st September 2008

As part of International Day of Peace we are inviting all Londoners and church services to pause for a minute of silent prayer at 12.00 noon for the Peace of our city. This observation also aligns with 200 other nations.

Blessed are the Peace Makers because they shall be called sons of God. Matthew 5 vs.9

Planning your Peace Service in 2008

As part of the Christian response to the London Week of Peace we are asking churches to prayerfully plan services dedicated to planning and promoting Peace in their local area through out the week.

We believe that prayer and practical participation across the City of London can create a positive impact.
